INFORMATION REPORT INFORMATION REPORT

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Camal Project NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT REFERENCES 22 ATE ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITION TO THE SMAll going, on, but the main part of the Galef Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. NA2-20, E59-33). 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going, on, but the main part of the Galef Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. NA2-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	Suspension of the Chief Turkmen DATE DISTR. 16 May 1955 25X1 THE OF INFO. CE ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE. This is UNEVALUATED This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE. This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE. This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Shief Turkmen danal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. 25X1 25X1			i				25X
1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going, on, but the main part of the Chief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. NA2-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Cate Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (epprox. N42-20, E59-33). 2. The Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km,long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhatan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhatan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	DUNTRY	USSR (Turkmen a	nd Uzbek	SSRs)	REPORT		05.84
ACE ACQUIRED ACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Shief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km]long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITION OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Ghief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	IBJECT		he Chief	Turkmen			25 X 1
ACE ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE ATTRIVAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Gaief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km,long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITION OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Ghief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	ATE OF INFO			•	,		k !
This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITION. TO THANK THE MEAN PARTY SALE OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Ghief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhtya Tash (approx. N#2-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	This is UNEVALUATED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITE. THE STATE OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Galef Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.							25X
1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on, but the main part of the Chief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km],long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Ghief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. it was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.				This is UN	EVALUATED		25X
1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on but the main part of the Chief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. it was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	1. In November 1953, some work on the small canals was still going on, but the main part of the Ghief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km,long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. it was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.		SOURCE EVALUATION	S ARE DEFI	Information	SAL OF CONTENT IS	TENTATIVE.	_ 25X
part of the Chief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km/long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. it was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	part of the Chief Turkmen Canal project had been abandoned. Approximately 200 excavators were standing idle in Takhiya Tash (approx. N42-20, E59-33). 2. the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km, long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. it was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.
the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would lelp raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	the Turkmen Canal was to be 1,200 km, long and that 10,000 to 20,000 prisoners worked on the project. It was given up after the death of Stalin in order to concentrate on projects that would 25X1 help raise the standard of living of the people. One of these projects was the irrigation work in South Kazakhstan, started to help agriculture. Much of the equipment used to build the Turkmen Canal had been moved to Kazakhstan. 3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.
3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	3. There were acres of machinery parked near Takhiya Tash, which had become a military town in 1953.	part	of the Chief Tur	kmen Cana	al project 1	nad been abandone	d. Approximately	(1) (1)
	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	part 200 2. 20,0 afte helf the	c of the Chief Turiexcavators were successful the coordinate of State of St	kmen Cana tanding Turkmen ed on the alin in o rd of liv n South I	al project lidle in Takl Canal was a e project. order to conving of the Kazakhstan,	to be 1,200 km/lor to be 1,200 km/lor centrate on proj people. One of	d. Approximately . N42-20, E59-33). ng and that 10,000 to _it was given up ects that would these projects was griculture. Much	25X1 25X1
	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	part 200 2. 20,0 afte help the of the state	the control of the co	tanding : Turkmen ed on the adlin in e rd of liv n South I to build	al project lidle in Takl Canal was e project. order to con ving of the Kazakhstan, i the Turkme	to be 1,200 km/los to be 1,200 km/los ncentrate on proje people. One of started to help a en Canal had been	d. Approximately . N42-20, E59-33). ng and that 10,000 toit was given up ects that would these projects was griculture. Much moved to Kazakhstan.	25X1 25X1
\mathcal{A}	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	part 200 2. 20,0 afte help the of the state	the control of the co	tanding : Turkmen ed on the adlin in e rd of liv n South I to build	al project lidle in Takl Canal was e project. order to con ving of the Kazakhstan, i the Turkme	to be 1,200 km/los to be 1,200 km/los ncentrate on proje people. One of started to help a en Canal had been	d. Approximately . N42-20, E59-33). ng and that 10,000 toit was given up ects that would these projects was griculture. Much moved to Kazakhstan.	25X1 25X1
	C-U-N-f-I-D-E-N-I-I-A-L	part 200 2. 20,0 afte help the of the 3. Ther	the control of the co	tanding : Turkmen ed on the adlin in e rd of liv n South I to build	al project lidle in Takl Canal was e project. order to con ving of the Kazakhstan, i the Turkme	to be 1,200 km/los to be 1,200 km/los ncentrate on proje people. One of started to help a en Canal had been	d. Approximately . N42-20, E59-33). ng and that 10,000 toit was given up ects that would these projects was griculture. Much moved to Kazakhstan.	25X1 25X1

INFORMATION REPORT INFORMATION REPORT

NAVY

STATE

X FBI AEC

(Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".)